GREETINGS

I have just returned from Houston. Quilt Market was an exciting event. I saw many new patterns, gadgets and notions. I've brought back a selection that I hope will be of interest to many of you. We will not be having a Dabble Day this year as Carol and I will be at the Cambridge Quilt Show, but you can stop by the shop any time to see what's new from Houston.

I am very sorry to any of you were inconvenienced during our closure last week. Unfortunately, our neighbour cut our power during construction which left us unable to trade for four days. We made every effort to contact everyone in our email list and to phone any of you whose classes were cancelled or postponed. I appreciate how understanding you all were as it was a terrible situation and completely out of our control. My deepest apologies to anyone who couldn't be notified and may have showed up at the shop to find us closed. We are making every effort to reschedule classes and ensure that any special offers which have been missed while the shop has been closed will be repeated.

As always, if you have any queries, please don't hesitate to ring or stop by and see us! We're always here to help.

Lisa

NEW ARRIVALS

Sew Much Love

By Sue Zipkin for Clothworks.

This range features all the sewing notions we love. Great for boxes and bags.

Newton All Year

By Leslie Ann Clark for Clothworks.

This new collection from Clothworks has been featured in many of the magazines. The range makes a cute and quick baby quilt, if you use the panel.

CLAN QUILTS

I was very excited to deliver four finished quilts to Clan House during October. Many thanks to our dedicated group who have been helping to make quilts for Clan House. If you would like to get involved, our Quilts for Clan group meets on Thursday afternoons from 2-5pm. We are taking a break right now but the group will start meeting again from November 13. We need any help you can provide, from cutting to sewing, to sorting fabrics. Any time you can donate is appreciated.
